

The fright !

I was watching TV in my house last Saturday, when I heard a noise in the kitchen, the noise was each time higher.

I was with fear, the noise was becoming insupportable.

Then it stopped, was alone, at house.

In the morning before the coffee , i told for my father and he didn't believe.

But when he entered in the kitchen the disonder was great.

I was waiting another thing an it was my cat and my dog.
