

UMA MENINA PERDIDA
FLORESTA

NA

Era uma vez no ano de 2003, duas jovens passeavam pelas ruas até um dia em que uma das jovens se perdeu nas florestas, e a outra tentou ir de atrás mais não achava nada, então ele decidiu chamar ajuda mais ninguém escutava ela mais ela conseguiu sair da floresta e chamar ajuda, ela pegou seu celular e mandou mensagem para os bombeiros mais onde ela estava não tinha rede então ela vai para a casa dela e de lá ela consegue chamar bombeiros os bombeiros chagam até lá mais não acham nada.

Pros bombeiros e pra polícia esse caso já tinha encerrado mais eles ainda queriam descobrir como essa menina se perdeu, ela deveria estar com fome e sede, passado 2 meses e nada de acharem a minina até que eles ouvem um grito da floresta mais eram só animais que faziam barulho "estranho" eles foram mais afundo e acharam uma casa abandona que praticamente não tinha nada mais tinham barulhos estranhos nessa casa, e quando eles iam de noite erra muito assustador.

Essa casa tinha barulhos estranho tipo de vozes humanas, os bombeiros e os polícias achavam que não era nada, mais oque eles não sabiam que a casa era assombrada eles procuravam até de helicóptero Eles já tinham muitas provas que a amiga talvez fosse suspeita de matar e de ter enterrado mais eles não tinham tanta certeza porque a amiga dela não demonstrava nada além disso ela não falava nada sobre, não ficava preocupada nem nada.

Mais a amiga da menina desaparecida foi um dia na casa abandona e os bombeiros vão atrás dela e ela estava muito diferente do normal parecia que ela estava alterada como se tivesse usado drogas bebidas e outros tipos de drogas a menina desaparecida foi achada em um bunker feita pela própria amiga a outra amiga foi presa e depois disso ela nunca mais foi vista talvez ela morreu na cadeia.

Once upon a time in 2003, two young women were walking through the streets until one day when one of the young women got lost in the forests, and the other tried to follow but couldn't find anything, so he decided to call for help but no one listened to her but she managed leaving the forest and calling for help, she took her cell phone and sent a message to the firefighters but where she was there was no network so she went to her house and from there she managed to call the firefighters. The firefighters got there but found nothing.

For the firefighters and the police, this case had already closed but they still wanted to find out how this girl got lost, she must have been hungry and thirsty, after 2 months they hadn't found the little girl until they heard a scream from the forest but they were just animals that made "strange" noises, they went deeper and found an abandoned house that had practically nothing in it but there were strange noises in that house, and when they went there at night it was very scary.

This house had strange noises like human voices, the firefighters and police thought it was nothing, but they didn't know that the house was haunted, they even searched for it in a helicopter.

They already had a lot of evidence that their friend might be suspected of killing and burying them, but they weren't so sure because her friend didn't show anything, and she didn't say anything about it, she wasn't worried or anything.

But the missing girl's friend went to the abandoned house one day and the firefighters went after her and she was very different from normal, it seemed like she was altered, as if she had used drugs, drinks and other types of drugs, the missing girl was found in a bunker made by her own friend the other friend was arrested and after that she was never seen again maybe she died in jail.
