

Alexa and Odinn

Poems of Alexa
Por: Alexandra Galatão Madeira and Odinn

JUST YOU

and me

For eternity Odinn will guide your soul lessons and signs to many Ages
Our sacred people with the same hearts
The same ravens from the same secret of the old flags do you understand it? I asked to the viking
And he said
Exactly - alexa Its truth The eyes of Odinn are hidden in our eyes

Hails the most sacred Flag where our heroes are giants where our roots are one Stay with me
but answer me please I know that you know me
he shouted
Ravens are my eyes
Runes are my hills
Reigns my home
Then in silence I smiled
Then inside my heart
he stayed with me
like the same

The Queen is always looking your roots the tree is the same Hails you Freya said the viking with honour and proud then Freya said Hails your heart that can see who I am Now I sing for you forever alexa

I remember you walking between many Worlds - I said The memories are gifts too my dear - said Odinn How can I hear your great words If I dont see you?
But I really I hear you all time Exactly - he said but when you hear me I can see you dear and when you hear my mind I let you see who I am
Yes- I said
In the raven`s eyes I see you

Why don`t you answer me?
Our Gates are opened now and do you go? Odinn blessed you too Dont you feel I am talking to you? its just me my dear feel my wings why the fear? said the Valkyrie with tears

The sacred thunder is our Hill

My sacred Sleipnir my secret friend we two in the roads ride together me and my Horse from all my Victories

but answer me please
he shouted
Ravens are my eyes
Then in silence I smiled
Then inside my heart

our hug is more than millions of hugs dear viking our hug is like wings of the Eagle do u remember that?
Im here to complete you too

How I miss my old home - I said We miss you too - said Odinn How I wish to touch the old mountains they are touching you all time my dear alexa please listen me always Free is the soul of all my children he said they have the souls touched by me too You all are my sacred winds in the secret wings of my valkyries always my dear

Heroes honour my Home
Reigns hide my Runes Roots write my Hills
And you sing in my winds Yes alexa those who honour my name they are more than heroes they are my same songs to this New age alexa Yes I write to you the hills of my runes said me Odinn this afternoon

I am here like your hills for your heart at my home my soul sings do you hear me? Answer me dear But the viking like a Giant took me in his arms and said to the the strongest winds forever my shield
I will hear your heart like my hills

Use my Name and be free always my son Your many journeys are my victories your many defies are my lessons to you strong is your soul that is always near mine to you I am a sacred sword and to me you are my sacred seed forever

Now do you understand me?
We are old vikings souls We are the runes of Odinn
the viking looked to me from soul to soul he touched my heart those blue eyes were like ice but blue like the sea Memories with old viking ships my dear
I said
Yes we were there the battles beats stronger in my heart always and when I hear the name of Odinn my memories beats deep in my soul too let me be your Godness again and forever in the eternity you will ride with Odinn

I walk long journeys to meet you back And you know I am yours How can I forget your words if my heart can hear your voice like swords Until You ask me to stop I will write what we talk - I said then Odin asked me many pages to write alexa? many books too - he said my children are books of my soul write my child - he smiled now you dont sleep anymore show them my voice it was your choice my dear be ready alexa what you had you will have back too
